ANOTHER CASE OF TYPHUS.

Max Lippman, a Young German Sailor, the Last Victim.

Another case of typhus fever has come to light in this city.
The last victim of this dreaded disease is Max Lippman, a young German, who has been some eight or nine years in this country.

He was taken ill at a hotel on the River, where he had been living with his sister-in-law, who keeps a boarding-house.

Lippman is a sailor. He was taken sick a week ago. Saturday afternoon he rose up in a third avenue car and went to Mount Sinai Hospital for treatment.

He was examined by several physicians attached to the hospital staff, and pronounced him suffering from typhus fever. The health department was immediately notified, and Dr. Cyrus Brown went up to Mount Sinai Hospital and examined the case. He verified the diagnosis of the hospital doctors, and Lippman was hurried away to the Riverside Hospital, on North Brothers Island.

Dr. Brown said this morning that Lippman's case was a typical case of typhus, yet there was no history of the terrible disease that can be connected with him.

It was learned that Lippman had been sleeping with a man who came from Hamburg seven weeks ago.

Dr. Brown said this man, however, and found him perfectly well. He has not been ill.
The doctor believes that there is an undeveloped case of typhus somewhere in the city to which some persons have been exposed. He thinks it probable at a few days more the disease may develop from the exposure to this one.

The house 75 South street is a tenement, 14th floor, in a room with three other persons, one of whom was the late arrival from Hamburg.

The house has been thoroughly fumigated and will be kept under observation by the health officers.

Lippman is twenty-one years old.
The persons who roomed in the same car with him Saturday and were exposed to the contagion are liable to be stricken with it.

The health officers are trying to hunt up the car, and will eliminate it if they can and it.

STRIKERS SHOT BY DEPUTIES.
Another Serious Outbreak in the Coke Regions.

OFFICIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
CONNEAUTVILLE, Pa., May 4.—Another serious outbreak in the coke region. Last night Supt. Gray and Pit Boss Callahan went to house No. 17, at Leanington, to release two workmen who had been imprisoned by the strikers. They were set upon by a mob of strikers and shot.

When the Sheriff's deputies came to their assistance the mob also attacked them and attempted to take a gun from one of the deputies.
The battle raged more and more fiercely, until a shot was fired by the strikers and Supt. Gray then ordered the deputies to fire.

Two of the strikers were shot. One is dead and the other dying.

Buried To-Day, At or Hay n; Accumulated $50,000 by Frugality.

OFFICIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.
PASADENA, N. J., May 4.—That John Mo-David, the hot-carrier, who was buried this morning from the Catholic Church of St.
Nicholas, was worth $50,000, was a surprise to most people in this city.

To all that few, who knew the amount of real estate he owned, it was supposed that he was a poor man.

McDavid was born in the County of Donegal, Ireland, 37 years ago. When he landed at Castle Garden, he had only $2.00 in his pocket. He went to work on a farm in Herkens County for 20 cents a day. It was two years before he had saved money enough to bring his wife over from Ireland.

Soon after her arrival they both went in work on the farm of the late Captain A. J.
P. of Passaic. By constant toil, in the course of twenty-five years they managed to save $50,000, which was loaned to a lot 100 feet square, on the corner of State and Passaic streets.

After the war John mortgaged his lot and built a two-story frame dwelling, in the background of which he owned a lot. His wife attended the lot and he began carrying the lot.

Five children had been born to them, two of whom are now dead. The children were intended to be educated. The children were carefully saved. The largest was John, now 21 years old, who is now a sailor. He is now in the U. S. Navy. He is now in the U. S. Navy. He is now in the U. S. Navy.

During the parade of Barnum's circus in Jersey City this forenoon a truck horse reined up at the sidewalk between Newark avenue and Warren street became frightened and ran away.

Several persons were knocked down, and a boy, Colon Walker, and a girl, Mrs. Michael Lange, were taken to the City Hospital. The driver of the truck was killed and was seriously injured.

The boy Walker had both legs broken, and the head of the truck was killed and was seriously injured. The driver of the truck was killed and was seriously injured.

Albert Roese, driver of the truck, was killed.

They all try to imitate our "Special Sale," but THEY'RE NOT "IN IT."

Just as we predicted, a confidence Clothing Shop on Broadway is attempting to imitate our GREAT SPECIAL SALES. Of course we appreciate that "imitation is the sweetest flattery," and if these buke clothiers would only back up their ADVERTISEMENTS WITH SOLID FACTS IN MERCHANDISE, we wouldn't have a word to say.

HOWEVER.—We consider it due to the public to point out the difference between our GENUINE SACRIFICE SALE and the PETTY CLAPTRAP arrangement with which our imitators attempt to "gull" the public.

We are actually selling Suits of Clothes and Spring Overcoats at $7.50 that would ordinarily bring $12, $15 and $18, and be considered "good value" at these figures. The reductions in price with a view to the public are GENUINE. Not one article of humbug about it. Every garment we offer is purely "All Wool," well made and perfect fitting.

We want you to get the benefit—we don't want you to be "fooled," by any of these IMITATORS whose bargains are all "on paper," who show goods in their windows that they "can't fit you in" when you ask for them, and offer cheap Satinets and Cottonades as "bargains."
